THE STORY BEHIND THE SPARKLE

Hi, I’m Holly.

New chapter. New destinations.

After a 36-year career, I’m making room for more of what I love: exploring new places, meeting people, and collecting moments that matter.

From mountain trails and glacier adventures to beach escapes and van getaways, I believe there’s always another story waiting to be lived.

Rollin’ With Holly began as a place to share those stories. It’s growing into a travel business built around thoughtful planning, useful recommendations, and the joy of discovery.

Travel has no expiration date.

Curiosity is always a good reason to go.

Let’s make room for adventure.
